GERMANY'S LEADING CITIZENS, INCLUDING STINNES FEAR DEATH! Optical Special

Wounded Editor Declares Thousands of Young Men Are Banded in Secret Organizations to Carry Out Murderous Deeds of Monarchist Group.

Examiner)

BERLIN. July 22.—The German government is afraid to dissolve the relichstag and appeal to the people for fear that more Nationalists would be returned. Every citizen, considering the government's timidity feels unsafe. The Hamburg banker, Max Warburg, whose brother. Is a partner in the American banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb and company, a superlative patriotic German, who as a member of the first German, who as a member of the first German peace delegation started a movement for the rejection of the treaty, has been so threatened that the police have ordered him not to leave his house.

Another banker, well known in the United States, Herr Denberg, former colonial minister, has decided after repeated menaces to sell his house in the Grunewald section which has received a sinister reportation through.

the Grunewald section which has received a sinister reputation through the murder of Rathenau and the at-tack upon myself. Two editors whose names figured on the murder list found by the police, have fled from Berlin with false passports under po-lice protection.

Berlin with false passports under police protection.

STINNES AFRAID

Stressessemann, the Monarchist leader who favored unrestricted submarine warfare and annexation of Belgium, urgently requested police protection, because he saw persons outside his window.

Still more dumbfounding, Stinnes, himself, who was the warmest Nationalist throughout the war and even recently demonstrated his unchanged opinions by baptizing ships Tirpitz, Hindenburg and Ludendorf, this fearless and nerveless man, has been persuaded by insistent warnings to leave his home at Mulheimander, Rhur, and

SECRET ORGANIZATION
Thirty or forty thousand young men, former officers, students and high school boys have pledged themselves in a secret organization throughout the two gentlemen high in favor of the two Wilhelms of Doorn and Wierincountry blindly to carry out whatever igen.
